

Get South London Children's Author to visit your school!

South London based author Ella Phillips is publishing her debut picture book this September with Simon & Schuster Publishers:
My Grandma's Magic Recipes | Winter Warmth

This forms part of a 4-part seasonal series taking readers on a journey through winter, spring, summer and autumn.

Through vibrant illustrations and poetry, readers step into a magical land of adventure.

Can be tailored for nursery to year 6.

Available from October 2023.

To explore options please contact
CCatalysts.info@gmail.com

Ella Phillips is an author and artist, with over 10-years experience working within the arts and education sector. With a passion for words, learning and cooking, these books empower readers to experiment with healthy, tasty recipes.

Ella can create multi-sensory, bespoke school experiences; from a simple reading, to a more engaged day of activities with your schools' community. Pupils will gain an insight into how you become an author and be inspired to play with words and language.

What time of year whispers cool in your ear?
Makes you cosy at night; can be cold, can be bright?

At Grandma's Christmas party, there is the smell of sugar and spice, calypso music and dancing, and lots of friends and family . . . but no Grandma! Where could she be? Perhaps she'll be in her sweet-smelling kitchen, waiting for Zee to help her turn dough into yummy ginger biscuits!

Join Zee and Grandma as they celebrate a plant-powered winter with their magic recipes!

